INTRODUCTION

Our world is vastly different today due to technology AND differing belief systems. Our goal is to help young people discover their place in the world by finding their strengths and building their level of self-confidence.

To make an impact on children and young adults today, we need trainers who want to work with teens and young adults to find their “specialness” (their purpose in life) and to master the communication skills that will enable them to be effective in any working situation while, at the same time, they are learning the tech skills needed for successful employment in whatever field they choose.

Start and/or expand your training business with the first three of nine proven courses that will make a difference in the lives of your participants and earn you additional income!

THIS IS AN OPPORTUNITY FOR LEADERSHIP TRAINERS

TESTIMONIAL: "This class gave me ideas and led me in the right direction on how to channel my abilities. I had to deliver a speech in front of a semi-large audience of perhaps 50 people or so. I went in with some butterflies in my stomach, but surprisingly calm. I delivered perhaps the best speech of my life, not that I would think so, but the compliments I received convinced me that this class is the reason for my success. Without it I would have gone in totally ignorant to the audience's needs. That night was perhaps my proudest moment, for not only was I given the honor to speak, but also I proved that the faith they put in me was not a mistake on their part. I have this class to thank for my proud "moment in the sun." - Adam K*

This is not a class using huge textbooks or a calculator, but it is a class that gets results, which will help us in life, not only in high school. I mean with sincerity that this program has opened me up to others, and I will definitely seek to take some type of speaking course in college.- Sergio

TESTIMONIAL: “The final and probably most important skills that I learned was to only look for the positive in people. Because we were instructed to write down only positive things on our evaluation cards, picking out the good in people instead of bad has become second nature to me, This skill not only makes other people feel better, but it also reflects itself on my own disposition, When a person learns to see the positive in other people, it brings a much more peaceful, optimistic outlook to the rest of the world around them.” -Alessandra M

INTRODUCTORY TRAINING The first Monday of every month

The Success Skills are presented as part of the experiential learning process which includes experiencing, reflecting, thinking, and acting. Learning through experiencing validates and embeds each skill in the minds of the participants.

The length of each course training will depend upon the number of student participants.

The first time I went to make a talk, I was scared to death. I was worried about what the rest of the class would think. Now I feel so comfortable talking in front of people. I actually have a lot more fun giving the talks now that I have overcome my fear."

THE GoSuccess! PROCESS

The GoSuccess! Licensed Teachers train students on the skills most desired by employers via three courses that approach the “success skills” in a variety of ways in order to ensure each skill is thoroughly absorbed.

Specifically, the basic training all teachers go through consists of a Framework that includes communication skills—verbal and nonverbal, listening skills, attitude training, and people skills.

The instruction for teachers is covered in five one-hour sessions and is the basis for all GoSuccess! training.

Session One training includes the following:

Trainers will meet via zoom to learn about the background, expectations, commonalities of the courses, and answer any questions that arise.

All training is recorded. Any questions that arise will be responded to within 24 hours.

Training will also include Coaching Skills Training for meeting with students individually. In addition to our courses, our goal is to mentor those teens who may feel challenged by the material. Our goal is to increase the confidence levels of students, as well as their belief in themselves and in their preparation for a fulfilling life.

Although our lives have changed due to technology, human nature has not. The most cited reason employees leave a company is due to a toxic relationship with a co-worker or boss who undermines the employee's engagement, confidence, and commitment. When employees or customers are offended by someone in the workplace, they can decide not to do business with them, whether it is a diner, a hospital, a nursery school, a corporate entity, etc.

That is why licensed Trainers are needed in this area of "success skills" education. Answers to objective questions can be found online; learning technical skills can be found online, but you cannot find and learn the human essence online, i.e., that indefinable feeling you get when you interact with others. Success skills are an absolute necessity in order to have a productive, profitable workplace in every company. Those skills are essential to the implementation of new ideas, new robotics, new methods of execution.

The question is: Where are these qualities/skills currently being taught? The answer is "Nowhere". Schools do not have the time to train teenagers on these skills separately. They are mandated to focus on the essential skills: language arts, math, science, computer science, geography, etc. The "success skills" are assumed to be the student's responsibility to acquire. If, however, students are unaware of the importance on interpersonal skills, how can they develop them? Who can help them? What courses are available to them? That is why trainers are so needed!

Four million Americans quit their jobs in April 2021 according to government statistics and millions since. The Guardian and NPR are calling it the Great Resignation. If you are currently employed and experience this change of mindset, join us and make a difference in the lives of so many people.

GoSuccess! is far more than learning skills. It is a movement to make the world a better place! These courses provide a template for life. They allow each participant to learn about themselves in a way they had not contemplated previously.

POSITIVE FEEDBACK: Because the training is done in a group, participants receive feedback from their peers, feedback that is not competitive but complimentary to the individual. Why? Because the courses are developed in a way that validates each student and does not encourage a competitive atmosphere.

INDIVIDUALITY: Every person is different, yet each possesses something other students do not. When differences are brought out in a neutral way, others do not feel threatened or feel “lesser” because they do not share that trait. This is not a competition. This is a recognition of the individual gifts everyone has.

PERSONAL EMPOWERMENT: The requirement of one skill course requires each participant to write a positive statement about the performance of another classmate. By the end of the program, the teen participants feel empowered by the acceptance and recognition of their peers.

ATTITUDE CHANGE: An additional benefit is the change in attitude by having been required to see only positives in the work of their peers. This requirement then extends to those not in the class. Finding fault in others is sometimes a protective measure, a way to feel superior related to that person’s perceived fault.

ACCEPTANCE: Every human being desires acceptance by someone, some group, some people with whom they interact. These programs provide that. The acceptance and validation from peers build within each participant a strength that will enable them to pursue more difficult and varied experiences. They know they are okay; their peers allowed them to know that through their reactions to them.

MOTIVATION TO MASTER MATERIAL: By being placed in a position to help others who are younger and are experiencing their own self-doubts, teens more readily master the material they need to learn in order to help others. The feeling of satisfaction from helping someone else is motivation to continue along this path. The reactions of many juniors who mentored underclass students included statements such as, “I never felt looked up to before.” “I felt important,” “I loved helping kids who are new to the school.”

SELF-BELIEF leads to working up to one’s own ability, selecting a future most suited to their abilities, and ultimately, to making the world a better place. Happiness and success are desirable and contagious!

GoSuccess! was created to address the non-technical skillset that employers want, expect, and need from their employees, needs that schools have asked Youth Success Academy to help with over many years.

ALL TRAINING SESSIONS ARE RECORDED

The training during that week involves learning the Framework, i.e., the philosophy and psychology used in the development of GoSuccess! APPENDIX 1 - JOB MARKET REALITIES

Entire categories of employment are rapidly disappearing and will continue to do so for many years to come; however, different categories of non-technical skills are still needed no matter which market is sought.

The new (advanced) technology is responsible for the demise of many commonly held jobs, such as drivers, publishers, printers, cashiers, travel agents, bank tellers, manufacturing jobs, dispatchers, bartending, telemarketers, accountants, stock traders, military pilots, soldiers, construction workers, warehouse workers, even tax preparers, plus so many more.

Because of the rapid advancement of technology, industry changes are occurring faster today than ever before in human history. In addition, career seekers are no longer looking to cultivate long-term relationships with employers. The median number of years that wage and salary worker stay with their current employer was 4.1 years in January 2020, the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics recently reported. In 2021 the number is even lower due to the extenuating circumstances of the times.

Young people want to use their skills and abilities to earn an income, even if it means working at a variety of jobs as long as the jobs entail enjoyable and/or meaningful work and cover expenses.

APPENDIX 2 - THE GoSuccess LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

The GoSuccess! Training Academy is delighted to be able to offer the GoSuccess! program. For us, it is far more than just a way to learn interactive skills. It is a movement to make the world a better place! The Mission of the Leadership Academy is to provide a positive experience for every participant in order to build a strong sense of confidence so that he or she can feel secure in their futures.

We need independent trainers to do this invaluable work!

This is achieved by providing students with the tools necessary to participate to their fullest both in and outside of the school community with the result being a strong sense of self-belief, i.e., unlocking something new within themselves.

The GoSuccess! Leadership Academy's vision includes training, mentoring, and individualized attention that train teenagers

- how to discover their passion
- how to internalize the benefits and basics of showing kindness through the mastery of human relations and communication skills, along with
- how to create a positive attitude and healthy environment through the ways in which they live and interact with others.

These are the "Success Skills" friends, family, and employers seek.

The over-all goal for participants is to achieve a high level of self-esteem, i.e., a strong belief in themselves. Every person is special in some way. The Licensed Trainers with the GoSuccess! Academy will help to illuminate that specialness in every participant.

If a person believes in himself, he will choose his right path in life. Together, we can make the world a better place!

We encourage trainers who are interested in impacting lives with the intent of preparing them for the future. THAT IS OUR MISSION.

Licensed Trainers provide their students a template for life. They allow participants to learn about themselves in ways they had not previously contemplated. Our intention is to provide a win-win situation for the students and the world they inhabit.

Our goal is to not only prepare students for the changing job market but also provide them with increased self-confidence and strong interpersonal skills that will impact all segments of their lives.

Our plan includes nation-wide as well as global training for all students.
